"This is a difficult time in history, and MY HERO creates an awareness of everyday individuals - heroes, not just problems in our society. We need more positivity. Before deciding on heroes or beginning their stories, my students have to collaborate with their families on defining the characteristics of a hero. They then have to interview their parents about their childhoods. Students experience a newfound respect for their families and connections that will impact the rest of their lives."

-Teacher Julie Reidel

TEACHER FEEDBACK

The MY HERO Project's extensive existing training materials, and staff support in creating a curriculum tailored for our program, helped make our summer bridge program a huge success. The students made eight "My Hero" films in groups, all while being completely remote from one another. I am so grateful for the help we received from The MY HERO Project.

Teacher Coleen Bondy at Los Angeles Unified School District, USA

As we face the COVID challenge of distance learning, MY HERO's FREE online library of media provides much needed stories of hope and positive role models to empower our youth - our future heroes.

ALUMNI

Participants in The MY HERO Project go on to do amazing things.

Mattie Stepanek, author of HEARTSONGS

When Jim Hawkins of Children's Hospice International nominated Mattie Stepanek as a hero on MY HERO, the young poet hero was only six years old and had already written several hundred poems. Mattie was suffering from a hereditary disease called dysautonomic mitochondrial myopathy, as was his mother. This rare form of muscular dystrophy had already claimed the lives of his three older siblings. Mattie passed away on the morning of June 22, 2004. Mattie's poems of peace and hope have touched millions of lives; his heartsongs will continue to reach people of all ages around the world for decades to come.

"It was about 20 years ago when MY HERO chose to honor Mattie who was only 6 years old at the time, as a poet hero. MY HERO gave Mattie, a little boy, a platform for sharing his HEARTSONGS, his messages of purpose, purpose for himself and purpose for all of us. When Mattie died in 2004 just before his 14th birthday MY HERO was a place where global neighbors could turn. They were able to share comments and thoughts about Mattie. About their grief and about their ongoing hope for peace routed in lessons they had learned from this little boy."

Slater Jewell-Kemker with her hero Jean-Michel Cousteau

"The MY HERO Project taught me the power of storytelling. It's endlessly inspiring to me as an artist (and at a deeper level, as a human) to see the empowered community of young storytellers that MY HERO has fostered impact their own communities and bring a little bit more love, understanding and tolerance into a world that so badly needs it."

Slater Jewell-Kemker
Director of feature film Youth Unstoppable

Mohamed Sidibay with the Dalai Lama

"In a world where the media sensationalizes violence, the importance of organizations like MY HERO cannot be understated. MY HERO came at a time in my life when my world was in complete disarray. Unable to understand the world outside of the one I had grown up in, MY HERO taught me the true meaning of life by empowering me through the use of media and storytelling."

Mohamed Sidibay
Former child soldier from Sierra Leone, UNESCO and Global Partnership for Education Advisor
