Virtual Reality for Social Good

VR for Social Good Educator Resources

MY HERO's VR Educator Guides help introduce this new technology in to the classroom. Our resource guides include info on curated immersive content that inspires and promotes social good, fosters empathy, activism and innovation.

We work to engage creators and educators to share their resources with our community as we together promote best practices and provide mentors for teacher & student trainings.

Workshops

MY HERO media arts educators Wendy Milette and Chris Cain are available for mentoring. Our VR for Good Team can present workshops at conferences and schools.
