“Using technology to share stories about role models is a powerful way to help young people understand and appreciate diversity and the strength that resides in all of us to effect positive change in our world.”

— Dr. Edwin Gragert
Executive Director, iEARN USA

WHAT The MY HERO website provides people of all ages an online venue for discovering and publishing hero-based stories, art, and short films. Children learn by example—our ever-growing archive provides thousands of examples of people overcoming obstacles and achieving their dreams.

WHO Millions of students and thousands of teachers use this FREE project-based learning resource each month to celebrate the best of humanity.

HOW Lesson plans and online tutorials guide teachers and students through the process of building Web pages, producing short films, and sharing digital images of the heroes in their lives.

WHERE This educational project is used in over 160 countries to provide global awareness, promote cross-cultural understanding, and inspire young people to make a difference in their communities.

WHEN This ever-growing Internet archive is available 24/7. News stories, films, and artwork featured on our home page relate to current and special events, making the MY HERO website a destination to return to time and again.

WHY We live in a globally connected world in which the mainstream mass media often overlooks unsung heroes. MY HERO taps the potential of technology to educate and inspire by providing positive role models to encourage young people to follow in the footsteps of their heroes.
